How To Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Newark takes very seriously any and all credible complaints of sexual misconduct by members of the clergy, religious and lay staff of the archdiocese. We encourage anyone with knowledge of an act of sexual misconduct to inform the archdiocese immediately so that we may take appropriate action to protect others and provide support to victims of sexual abuse.

Individuals who wish to report an allegation of sexual misconduct may do so by calling the Archdiocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection at 201-407-3256.

THE LSEC CORNER

Empowering Ourselves and Others

So many of us are trapped in our own upper rooms, refusing to leave the safety of the world we have created for ourselves—painful as it might be. We are filled with fear and doubt and are reluctant to take the steps needed to love ourselves fully. So fully that we forgive ourselves, accept who we are in all of our brokenness, and move toward to forgive others and spread the good news to help others break free from their fear.

Bernard Lonergan, SJ said that, “The entrance to faith is doubt.” In this belief we find ourselves, like Mary and those first disciples, desperately wanting the peace that Jesus brings, wanting to feel the fullness of “Shalom”, and knowing again what it feels like to be whole, without agitation or discord. There are many who are still hiding or lost, many even sitting lost among us, remaining unengaged. They experience fear so great that they are silenced.

These words from the prayer of Saint Teresa of Avilla, sums it up beautifully. It expresses the work that Jesus is depended on us to accomplish.

May her words become ours:

Lord, Christ, you have no body on Earth but ours. No hands but ours, no feet but ours. Ours are the eyes through which your compassion must look out on the world. Ours are the feet by which you may still go about doing good. Ours are the hands in which you bless people now. Bless our minds and bodies, that we may be a blessing to others.

Amen

Food Certificates

Food certificates to local supermarkets are on sale in the parish office. All proceeds from this sale - $5.00 for every $100.00 worth of certificates purchased – is used each month to help our parishioners in need. We remember that the Lord said, “When I was hungry, you gave me to eat; when I was thirsty, you gave me to drink.”

Through the purchase of food certificates, you are directly putting food on the table of OLBS families. Thank you, and God Bless.

In anticipation of “THANKSGIVING DAY,” Social Concerns Ministry will again be asking our generous parishioners, of OLBS, for help; however, like all programs in these cautious times, we are eliminating the dinner bags. The Coordinator explained, due to the coronavirus, there are fewer volunteers at the food pantry to assist with the tremendous amount of dinner bags donated, by OLBS parishioners, throughout the previous years. INSTEAD, a monetary donation to purchase between 60-75 “Roasting Chickens,” would be greatly appreciated. The other thanksgiving food items, if needed, will be purchased by OLBS volunteers using your donations.
