Advent: It's all about waiting

No one likes to be kept waiting and this year, there has been a lot of waiting. Waiting is the albatross that lurks and hangs on all of our necks – most especially when we do not have much time or need to be somewhere else.

Waiting in line, online or even near a line can be a cause for upset or frustration. Even the word “traffic” causes immediate anxiety for many people, with empathy for those involved in a car accident (the cause for the delay) can be lacking.

In Advent we wait, too. You do not see or hear about the lines as much, but we wait nonetheless. We wait to greet our newborn King each year and welcome him with abundant hearts. And we wait for His final coming again when the world's wrongs will be made right. Although Advent waiting is a different kind of waiting, it is extremely serious, yet joyful at the same time. The wait in Advent is not dreaded, but an exciting one filled with hopeful expectation. While we are impatient for it to be over, we know what eventually arrives is joy, excitement and the promise of our innermost dreams fulfilled.

The word “WAIT” is defined as being in repose until something expected happens. The wait in Advent is a knowing wait because God has always fulfilled His promises to us. The Advent wait is like a musical fermata, a hold over a beautifully sung note in a lyrical piece. It reminds us of a pregnant pause in exquisitely crafted literature.

May our wait this Advent be filled with grand anticipation of the things that most prepare us for His coming.

Parish Giving

Parish Giving

Please consider signing up for our electronic giving program. It is safe, easy and you never have to worry about forgetting your envelope.

You can sign up directly from our parish website. If you have any questions, you can email Patty Braga at patty@olbs.org.

How To Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Newark takes very seriously any and all credible complaints of sexual misconduct by members of the clergy, religious and lay staff of the archdiocese. We encourage anyone with knowledge of an act of sexual misconduct to inform the archdiocese immediately so that we may take appropriate action to protect others and provide support to victims of sexual abuse.

Individuals who wish to report an allegation of sexual misconduct may do so by calling the Archdiocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection at 201-407-3256.

From Needlework's Ministry:

We would like you to know that we are still busy knitting. We would like to remind everyone that if they know of anyone in need of a prayer shawl or lap blanket to please contact us. We do not need a name. We just want to provide some comfort for those in need. Please call the Parish Office @ 973-226-7288 to make a request.

Food Certificates

Food certificates to local supermarkets are on sale in the parish office. All proceeds from this sale - $5.00 for every $100.00 worth of certificates purchased – is used each month to help our parishioners in need.

We remember that the Lord said, “When I was hungry, you gave me to eat; when I was thirsty, you gave me to drink.”

Through the purchase of food certificates, you are directly putting food on the table of OLBS families. Thank you, and God Bless.
