Sunday June 5 Readings

Reading I: Acts 2: 1-11

St. Luke presents the dramatic miracle story of Pentecost, the birthday of the Church. Storm, wind and fire manifest the heavenly origin of the Gift of the Spirit to the disciples.

Reading II: I Corinthians 12: 3b-7

Since the different spiritual gifts have the same origin, they share a common purpose. Like the parts of the human body, diversity is rooted in unity.

The Gospel: John 20: 19-23

The risen Jesus appears to the fearful disciples and greets them with a reassuring "Peace be with you." Note the word "apostles" is absent, so the power of forgiveness means bestowing the Spirit upon believers, and not sacramental absolution.

God of all goodness, You have entrusted us with the gift of life. Help us to appreciate the gift that life is. Send your strength to all those who defend life. May Your Holy Spirit touch the hearts of those who are tempted to choose the way of death rather than life. Grant that Your people may always be a sign of love in the world. Amen.
