MUSIC MINISTRY MINUTES

There are many famous hymns and classical compositions we hear during the Easter season, which celebrate the glory of the resurrection, one of the most familiar being the oratorio, The Messiah by George Frederick Handel.

This great work was composed in 1741 and was premiered the next year in Dublin, Ireland. The Messiah was composed in three parts, detailing the life of Christ. Part I corresponds with Advent, Christmas, and the early years of Jesus' ministry, Part II with Lent, Easter, the Ascension, and Pentecost and Part III with the end of the church year, dealing with the end of time. Certainly, the most popular movement of The Messiah is the Hallelujah Chorus, which completes the second part of the oratorio.

But wait a minute, why do we hear it so often sung and played at Christmastime? One theory is so many composers of the Baroque Era (1600-1750) wrote music about Christ's Passion and very little about his birth. The Messiah was unique, in that Part I corresponded to the Advent and Christmas seasons. Though found in Part 2, the stunning strains of the Hallelujah Chorus were so beloved, this chorus eventually evolved into being used as the conclusion of a performance of Part I.

In closing, there is an often-told story of why audiences stand during the performance of the Hallelujah Chorus. It's been written the King of England was so overcome by the majesty of the Hallelujah Chorus, that he felt the need to stand, and when the king stood, everybody stood! Our own OLBS Adult Choir sang this chorus at our annual Christmas concerts (pre Covid) and indeed, everyone in attendance stood, carrying on that royal tradition even here in Roseland!
