THE LSEC CORNER

Home Alone

There are challenges that face our children when they are home alone. Being prepared and informed will help keep our children safe.

Veronica Allende, director of the Division of Criminal Justice states, "You may think nothing can happen with your children being home all day, but please be vigilant."

Officials offered the following advice for parents:

- Teach your children that the people they encounter online may not be who they seem.
- Familiarize yourself with popular apps and gaming platforms that predators have used to target young victims during Operation Screen Capture and prior investigations.
- Check the security setting on your child's phones and see if they're able to be contacted by strangers through apps, games and social media.
- Constantly remind children not to share personal information with strangers on the internet, either through email or chat, or even through a screen name that could unwittingly reveal gender or age. Children should also be told to never take inappropriate photos and videos of themselves.

Be weary if your child is secretive or protective about their phone or computer.

A DIVISION OF
JOHN PATRICK PUBLISHING, LLC

Please consider signing up for our electronic giving program. It is safe, easy and you never have to worry about forgetting your envelope. You can sign up directly from our parish website. If you have any questions, you can email Patty Braga at patty@olbs.org. This is an easy and convenient way for parish families to make their weekly offering.

Food Certificates

Food certificates to local supermarkets are on sale in the parish office. The proceeds from this sale - $5.00 for every $100.00 worth of certificates purchased - goes to help us feed the hungry. We remember that the Lord said, "When I was hungry, you gave me to eat; when I was thirsty, you gave me to drink." Through the purchase of food certificates, you can help the parish serve the needs of the hungry.

From Needlework's Ministry:

We would like you to know that we are still busy knitting. We would like to remind everyone that if they know of anyone in need of a prayer shawl or lap blanket to please contact us. We do not need a name. We just want to provide some comfort for those in need. Please call the Parish Office @ 973-226-7288 to make a request.

*We make Baptism Blankets for all of the babies Baptized here at OLBS, and we are in need of WHITE yarn. Donations of white yarn or a monetary donation would be greatly appreciated. Thank you!

Thank you for your support, it is greatly appreciated.
