OLBS Pastoral Council

*“Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit...To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.”
(1 Corinthians 12:4, 7)*

September 2020

Dear Fellow Parishioner,

None among us would deny that these are indeed trying times; and who among us would have thought that at the beginning of the year we would be plagued by a global pandemic? But, here we are persisting in our mask wearing, praying for the day when they will no longer be necessary, and a “new normal” takes roots. The Pastoral Council of OLBS hopes that you and your loved ones have remained safe during these times, and we offer our prayers that you will continue to be kept safe and in good health.

My name is Dennis Murray, and I have served as Chairperson for the OLBS Pastoral Council for the past four years and have been a parishioner, along with my wife Conni, for 42 years. During my tenure as Chair, I witnessed a great transformation of enthusiasm and growth in the faith community of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament. This transformation has taken place through the work of those individuals who make-up the Council, with the help of the Holy Spirit guiding us. The time has come, however, when myself and three other current members will step down after serving on the Council for two three year terms. This is the reason I am writing this letter to all OLBS parishioners. We would like to fill these vacant spots by our November meeting, and you can help us.

If you are 18 years of age or older, and if you are an individual who has the desire to aid in the growth of our parish, then please consider either nominating yourself, or nominate another fellow parishioner, to fill these positions. The deadline for submission of prospective candidates is October 9, 2020. We are an advisory group to the pastor acting in the role of the “dreamers” for the parish, ever seeking for more ways to enhance our faith community. Our work is rooted in “Word, Worship, Community and Service,” with all leading to a more enriched faith community at OLBS. Would you consider volunteering your time for the betterment of your fellow parishioners? You can make a difference!

May God Bless You All,
Dennis Murray, PPC Chairperson

Acronyms and Other Internet Shorthand

Online chat rooms, Instant Messaging systems, and even cell phones are equipped to send text messages are environments rich in abbreviations, acronyms, and other "shorthand" that help increase the speed of communication. We have created a searchable list to help parents become aware of some of the common "lingo" that is used in these environments. You may find some of these terms to be vulgar, degrading, or otherwise offensive. However, we believe it is our responsibility to provide parents and educators with this level of understanding of the dangers that face our children.

Virtus.org has a search engine for acronyms and is an excellent resource. Would you know the definition of this term? @TEOTD, 14AA41?

(At the end of the day, one for all and all for one).

I am sure William Shakespeare would shutter at 2B or not 2B. No matter how it is written, know that you are AIMP (always in my prayers).

A complete list can be found at: https://www.virtusonline.org/virtus/net_acronyms.cfm?showall=1
